SECTION 4 BOOKING TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Full payment must accompany the booking form as we do not accept provisional bookings and places will only be confirmed once payment is received. Bookings will only be accepted on valid booking forms with a fully completed and signed declaration. Payment methods: cheque or BACS transfer, debit and credit cards.

Cancellations/Refunds. Once booked, no refunds apply to Distance Learning programmes. This includes refunds or reduction in fees for previously purchased materials, examinations not taken within the 12 month course registration period or non-attendance at booked tutorial sessions.

Personal Tutors on the help desk communicate with students primarily via email and on the occasion of telephone calls, no personal telephone numbers will or can be released. Wine School of Excellence reserves the right to alter the Personal Tutor allocated at enrolment where necessary.

Examinations. Examination dates are published on Wine School of Excellence's (WSE) website, and Distance Learning students are required to give WSE a minimum of 3 weeks' notice of their preferred examination date which will be subject to availability. If the student fails to attend a booked examination, he/she will be liable for subsequent examination fees. Re-sit examinations are not included in the course fee. All students are required to bring along authorised photographic ID (passport, photo driving license) with them to the examination otherwise they will be refused entry.

Expiry of the 12 month Enrolment Period. If the student has not completed the course within the 12 months from enrolment and does wish to complete their studies, he/she will need to re-enrol paying the relevant fees at the time of re-enrolment.

Special examination condition requirements due to dyslexia or other medical reasons must be notified prior to the start of the course and supported by a doctor's certificate or similar document.

All bookings are processed on the understanding and basis that you have read and agreed to the booking terms and conditions
